Fascists behind the Swedish mining company

Active fascists are taking place in the Swedish listed mining development company Wiking Mineral Board. The company's owner, Patrik Brinkmann DRUFFEL-von Egloffstein, is a leading figure in Europe's radical right and live for several years in Berlin.

The booming mining industry threatens the environment and various industries. Wiking Mineral, with fascists behind the controls, is one of the players in the industry. From top to bottom: Daniel Friberg, Görgen Edefors Michael Valtersson, Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffstein.

It was in the middle of last week that the Swedish listed exploration and mining development company Wiking Mineral AB announced that the company, with more than 1300 shareholders, appointed new members of the Board. Among the members are now Sweden Democrats' former Permanent Secretary in the Swedish Parliament Mikael Valtersson, and Daniel Friberg, who runs the radical right publisher Arktos Media Ltd based in the UK.

- Daniel Friberg and Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffstein are neo-fascists in the truest sense. The latter is a leader in the so-called identitarian flow in Europe, says Mathias wag, a journalist and expert on radical right movements.

Wiking Mineral not belong to any of the major mining exploration companies in Sweden. The business is mainly concentrated in the areas of Skellefteå area, north Bergslagen, Dalarna and Smaland.

In a press release on Monday says the Board of its intention to spin off exploration activities to a subsidiary and allow Wiking Mineral become an investment company.

Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffstein is also president and founder of the company Havilah Mining AB, which is also involved in mining exploration including Norrbotten. He also formed the foundation Continent of Europe in 2004, where one of the objectives is to support research on the European peoples ethnic roots. The Foundation has also published books on Islam in which Muslims are portrayed as a threat to Europe.

Before he moved to Berlin in 2008, he was declared personal bankruptcy and, according to the Swedish Tax a tax liability of just over 1.3 million.

But the tax liability is as Mikael Valtersson, spokesperson and newly elected to the Board, not affecting Wiking Minerals work.

- It's his private business and nothing related to the Company's operations, says Mikael Valtersson to the worker.

Michael Valtersson also says he does not believe that the new board has been elected because of their political standing close to each other on many issues.

- There is no politically appointed board, rather it is enough that we all know each other a long time, and I assume that the main owner finds us adequate reasons other than through politics. But it is clear to the Board and shareholders should be able to cooperate well needed perhaps those of us who are a little hardened when it is very windy in the media.

According to a statement from the organization Aktiespararnas voices kind evokes the now newly elected Board of Wiking Mineral AB concern among shareholders. The then newly appointed board members lack experience in both exploration industry as a former board works.

It has stormed around Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffsteins company earlier. As recently as last summer jumped Moderates former Minister for Employment Sven Otto Littorin, the Board of Directors. This after the newspaper Expressen repeatedly reported about Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffsteins strong connections to the German radical right movement in including Nationaldemokratische Partei Deutschlands, NPD, and the anti-Muslim movement in the country.

Patrik Brinkmann von DRUFFEL-Egloffsteins family now owns nearly 90 percent of the shares in Wiking Mineral according to the financial newspaper realtid.se. In the same newspaper also says the newly appointed Chairman of the Board Daniel Friberg he will feel as though the board now consists of a great team with complementary skills. He argues that in doing so there are several opportunities for interesting and creative changes in the company in 2014 and beyond.

Daniel Friberg has long been an influential person in the Swedish fascist movement and the end of the 1990s he was part of the circle around the neo-Nazi magazine Nordland and included the editor of the journal Futures, published by the radical right grouping Options Media started by Friberg yourself . 1998 Daniel Friberg was prosecuted for incitement to racial hatred for the content of a number of Future, but was acquitted. He later founded the site motpol.nu.

- Daniel Friberg was one of those who gradually built up the movement for Black Power-years, says Mathias WAG.

The worker has tried to reach Patrik Brinkmann DRUFFEL-von Egloffstein, however.

Footnote: The worker has after publishing has been in contact with Daniel Friberg, who is in India. He denies involvement in Nordland, but admits that he has been involved in the journal Future.
